To Head 1957 Cancer Drive

Mrs. Nicholas Romanos will head the Kent County chapter of the American Cancer Society for 1957. A goal of $76,250.00 has been set for Kent County this year. This is the same as last year's because of plans for expansion of cancer control activities.

Volunteers in the campaign will total 6,000 when the campaign gets under way in April.

MRS. OLLIE RITTER, 80,
Celebrate Birthday

Mrs. Ollie Ritter was honored with a family get-together Sunday in observance of her 80th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. and Mr. Robert Taylor.

These were present here were Mrs. and Mr. Russell Faulkner, Mrs. William VanOordt and Mrs. and Mr. Paul Wode Martel, great-grandchildren; Mrs. and Mr. John Faulkner, Mrs. and Mr. William VanOordt, Mary Faulkner; and Lee Wode Martel, also great-grandchildren.

A bountiful dinner was served and all included lovely heart-shaped birthday cake. The guests received many lovely gifts, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

We join the family in wishing her many happy returns. A group of Frem Faulkner was unable to be present.

Crippled Children

Need Your Help

Every year during the Lenten and pre-Easter season, the Kent County Chapter of the American Society for Crippled Children and Adults, announces a fund raiser in selling Easter Seals to earn much-needed funds for needed in April.

Easter Seal contributions are spent entirely on the crippled children and adults who want to be participating members of the community, and to help themselves toward a life of independence. State aid for the needy as well as to crippled children of the state is needed.

The annual fund raising period is underway in April. The Easter Seal Society serves a worthy function in offering rehabilitation aid to those over 21 as well as to crippled children of all ages. The Society is grateful for your support.

A new area in highway construc-unprecedented sums of money,

both for state and federal construction became available, Foster says, and those monies, together with next year’s grants, make an immediate, vast highway construction program of major highways for our state not only financially possible, but obligatory to Michigan people. Foster says: "As you appreci ate what the highway department has accomplished to-date, look at the record. In 1951, our construction program was only $13 million dollars. In 1955 it jumped to $72 million, the highest ever reached at that time.

The 1956 program run considerably more than $100 million. And the program for 1957 will run at least $35 million dollars.

“Self styled critics of the State highway Department are either fools or wasp-waists, and the program for 1957 will run at least $35 million dollars.”

“Of course, this is not a criticism, but an indication of the fact that the highway Department has been doing the work that is necessary for the state of Michigan.”

The Conservation Department’s game division operates four wildlife refuges in the state where year-round studies of birds and animals are made to obtain information valuable in establishing hunting seasons and regulating the birds. The refuges located at Swan Creek, Allegan county; Rice Lake, near East Lansing; and a new one at Schoolcraft county.

Kent Tree Planters

Will Set New Record

Kentucky taxpayers who sell their seedlings will be setting a national record in Michigan. This year, more trees have been planted in Kent County than ever before.

States in 1954 had an income of $10,000,000.00. The forestry committee of the state wanted to plant 5,000,000 trees, but the state's forest resources were limited.

The districts also have a limited technique. Does not even awaken.

Veterans Spark Face-Lifting Of Our Home State

First general meeting of the veterans organization will be held in Lansing on Thursday, March 25, to continue plans for construction of "operation face lift" which would improve Michigan's appearance. Michigan Week last year.

Lawrence Z. Lopuch, veteran aide (definitive secretary and organizer of veterans groups in Michigan) will be in charge of the meeting and the veterans will have an opportunity to meet with Governor G. Mennen Williams and other important state officials.

The program "operation face lift" was adopted last year, and many veterans were encouraged to help with this project. The veterans will have an opportunity to meet with Governor Williams and other state officials.

A new project "The Michigan Veterans Board of Enterprises" which will study ways to improve the state's appearance, will also be discussed at the opening meeting.

Fourth Annual Michigan Week, May 19 - 25, To Set New Record

With nearly 4,000 citizens working on committees in every county and community throughout the state, all indications are that the FOURTH ANNUAL MICHIGAN WEEK CELEBRATION, May 19-25, will surpass all others. It will foster natural curiosity about the state on the state! It will advertise Michigan's industrial products and resources. The state's agricultural products, and tourism industry will be promoted. The cultural and educational advantages of the state will be pointed out.

Established in 1954 to better acquaint the state's 7,500,000 citizens with the many advantages of the state as a great place to live, work, recreation and, above all, the 1957 MICHIGAN WEEK will gain wider recognition for the manufactured products of industry and agriculture, the produce of farms and processing plants and the Water Wonderland which attracts thousands of visitors from other states and countries.

Scores of events and promotions on a community and county level are being planned, with a broader participation by citizens of all ages from kindergartners to retirement. Michigan Week will be observed on a larger scale than ever in the schools and colleges. Many leaders of the Chamber of Commerce and of wholesale and retail groups are now actively engaged in the planning of events for the week.

Widespread use of the state flag with the many advantages of the state a great place to live, work, recreation and, above all, the 1957 MICHIGAN WEEK will gain wider recognition for the manufactured products of industry and agriculture, the produce of farms and processing plants and the Water Wonderland which attracts thousands of visitors from other states and countries.

The slogan is on buttons with a replica of the state bird, the blue jay. The slogan will appear on bumper strips, placards, posters, decals, streamers.

More Land for Public Hunting

Sportmen will find at least 624 new acres of land open to public hunting this fall, following recent action by the state Conservation Commission. The Commission, which met March 16-15 in Lansing, approved purchase of several tracts farm- and fish-land for a state cooperative. The purchases are financed by the Game Protection Fund, created by revenue from hunting licenses; and Pimentel-Bostick funds, money from federal taxes on hunting ammunition.

The new public hunting lands include 537 acres added to Allegan state forest, Allegan county; and 126 acres of Hardwood state forest, Cheboygan county. Also included are additions to the follow- ing public lands: 10 acres; Gray River, 80 acres; Shio- wance River, 80 acres; Danville, 55 acres; Sharonville, 30 acres; and Watertown, 12 acres.

Committee chairmen report that meetings everywhere are being well attended by citizens in all walks of life who are enthused over their part in "selling their state to its people" and residents who live outside its borders.

"It's Great to Live in Michigan" the official slogan of Michigan Week will be widely advertised. It will appear on automobiles, billboards, in store windows, in schools and other institutions, in homes and in fast and almost every place.

The slogan is on buttons with a replica of the state bird, the blue jay. The slogan will appear on bumper strips, placards, posters, decals, streamers.

Veterans Plan for Michigan Week
Operation “face lift” inaugurated in 1956 by veterans organization as their part in the observance of Michigan Week, will be continued this year, according to Lawrence J. La Lone, executive secretary of the Veterans Trust Fund. Mr. La Lone, who is chairman of the veterans Michigan Week committee, said all organizations of executives men and women in the state are urged to cooperate with local Michigan Week committees and continue the program of community betterment which started in May last year. Eliminations of eyecasts, beautification of parks and river banks, and other civic undertakings to make their communities better places in which to work, live and play will all be a part of the program sponsored by veterans groups for Michigan Week, May 19 to 25. Work is progressing on another project in which a veteran's "hall of fame" will be established to honor Michigan heroes dating back to the earliest wars—men who contributed to the betterment of their state and nation.

Michigan Features in National Magazines

Two national magazines will call attention to Michigan this spring. According to Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourism Council, the Saturday Evening Post on April 6th will carry illustrated story by Bill Wold on Michigan tourist spots, and the May issue of Town and Country will contain pages of text and pictures on the Grand Rapids furniture industry as well as the state’s vacation attractions.

Mr. Wolf, who last fall authored a Post feature on the annual canoe marathon at Cassopolis, sport several pages with representatives of the Tourist Council gathering material for his next feature on the northwestern Michigan community of Traverse City near Bay City. Publication date of the Town and Country feature on Michigan was revealed in a recent story conference with Mr. Furlong, who collaborated with text and background material.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bros, 6690 Cascade Rd., have as their week-end guest, Mrs. Bros’, aunt, Mrs. Charles Wilson of Long Beach, Calif.
